

VOTES PIER MONEY OVER PROTESTS OF CITY CHAMBERLAIN

Sinking Fund Commission
Ignores Plea for Big Interest to Stevedore Firm.

Notwithstanding the protests of City Chamberlain Berolzheimer that a bargain rate of interest was being charged Carroll, Hagan & Carroll for reconstruction costs of a city pier at the foot of East Fourth Street, the Sinking Fund Commission at a special meeting to-day authorized the issuance of $115,000 in corporate stock for rebuilding the pier before it will be turned over to the firm of stevedores of which a son of "Jimmy" Hagan, a Tammany leader, is a member.

When the Sinking Fund Commission approved of leasing the pier to the Hagan firm for about $50,000 a year, including interest on the money expended by the city in putting the pier in shape, and rental, several big shipping companies criticized the lease as inequitable to the city because they said those using the docking facilities pay as high as $500 a day for the privilege.

Before action was taken to-day Mr. Berolzheimer urged that the rate of interest be increased to 9 or 10 per cent. He explained that the city when it borrowed money at four and one-half per cent. made contractors pay seven and one-half per cent. Recently loans could only be obtained by the city at six per cent.

Mayor Hylan was apparently in favor of increasing the interest rate, but the members, with the exception of Acting Comptroller Philbin, voted in favor of spending the $115,000.

Suggestions for School Apparel and Supplies

THE school bell doesn't ring in New York as it did in the olden times for the little red school-house on the hill. But mothers have to get the children ready for school all the same. Stout suits for boys and girls, corduroys, serges, sensible shoes; a touch of jaunty for the flapper; and of real manliness for the true sport; school bags and outfittings for study and play-time.

This is what Bloomingdale does for you, mothers and boys and girls. All the regular school needs and the hundred and one oddments—supplied at prices markedly moderate. That's our policy.
